Book competition

Thursday, 6 November 2014

Pull up a comfy chair and get a good book in The Westerner Book Competition.

If you've ever been involved in a petty squabble and found yourself before the courts you might want to read the astonishing true story of Alan Manly.

A dispute over $115, with a nudge from the legal system, took on a life of its own and over ten years involved every court in the country, including the High Court of Australia.

Tired of pedestrian legal advice and ballooning costs, Alan sacked his lawyers and took on the legal system.

Sometimes hilarious, even ridiculous, When There Are Too Many Lawyers... There is No Justice is a true Australian 'David and Goliath' story.

The Westerner has two copies of When There Are Too Many Lawyers... There is No Justice (RRP $24.95) to give away.

Reader's Poll

Have you been following the action at the Commonwealth Games in Glasgow?

Absolutely! I love supporting Australian athletes in every sport. Aussie Aussie Aussie!

Yes but I'm only following the local athletes.

I'm keeping my eye on the results and the medal tally but don't have time to watch the events.

No. I don't like sport - even if Australia is winning lots of medals.

I didn't even know that the Commonwealth Games were on.
